

The no call list has brought piece and quite to dinner and family time, I beg you not to take away one of the few luxuries we are provided by the state. Big business and lobbyist get their way to often as it is.